TO THE # READER.

THIS Catalogue presents you with variety of good and scarce Books, Ancient and Modern, viz. in Divinity, History, Philology, Philosophy, Physick, &c. (which without an Elaborate Preface to set them off, or the stale and formal pretences of their being the Libraries of some late Learned Divines, or Famed Antiquaries deceased, to recommend them) they will be exposed to Sale by way of Auction in Sturbitch-Fair; a way so highly useful to the dispelling of Learning, so experimentally beneficial to the Relicts, and Executors of Divines and Gentlemen, in the disposal of their Libraries, which hath received the general Approbation of the Reverend Divines, &c. of the City of London, amongst which for several Years it hath been practised to their satisfaction. And if we consider the Essays that have been made in the Country, which have been readily entertained, and very well approved of, We cannot but promise our selves, (from that great and celebrated Body of Learning, viz. the famous University of Cambridge) in this our first Essay, an Incouragement in some measure answerable to the Nature and Expensiveness of such an Undertaking; which shall be managed with that fairness and honesty, and, if possible, to a general Content, as shall perfectly silence, not only the Ignorant, but Malicious Decryers of so excellent a Way and Method of handing Learning and Knowledg to the World.

This Auction will begin on Monday the 8*th* day of September, at the Auction-Booth in Sturbitch-Fair, from the Hours of Eight in the Morning to Eleven, and from One in the Afternoon to Five in the Evening, and there continue daily till all the Books are sold.
